Transmittal of Donated Items for Fundraisers

I. Introduction

- A. If an auction is attached to the event, the following additional forms will need to be submitted:
  - 1. Transmittal of Donated Items: to recognize donors who have provided goods and services for fundraisers (auction items, prizes, etc.).

B. Reminders for Auctions

- 1. The Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") requires donors show all or part of a payment is a charitable contribution. A donor's payment that has a quid pro quo element, even though charitable, will not be tax deductible unless:
  - a. the donor intends to pay an amount that exceeds the fair market value of the goods or services; and
  - b. the donor pays the amount.
- 2. In order for the donor at an auction event to be aware his/her bid exceeds the fair market value, the fair market value must be displayed with the item at the time of the sale or in any printed materials listing the items such as a catalog.

II. Transmittal of Donated Items for Special Events

- A. This transmittal form should be submitted for donated gifts towards an auction event with a fair market value of $250 or more. This information is recorded in the Foundation's database to assist in tracking donors' support of the University of Hawaii.
- B. Please attach any supporting documents to the transmittal.
- C. Gift acknowledgements and tax receipts for donated items will only include the description of the item given and never include the estimated cash value or the appraised value of the gift.
